

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMPLIANCE

Course Code: OW204007

TRAINING OUTLINE

This course enables board directors, company secretaries and senior managers to identify the typical regulatory and legal responsibilities that attach to running non-profit organisations. At the end of the workshop, participants will understand how to develop a compliance statement and how to better prepare new and existing board members for their governance roles.

Key discussion topics include:

- Legal responsibilities of company directors and company secretaries under company law
- Implications of lobbying activity, employing staff, engaging in fundraising and providing services to beneficiaries and vulnerable groups
- How to support new board members in their roles and keep existing board members energised and engaged

Participants will be encouraged to join questions and answers segments during the online workshop experience and each participant will receive 30 days access to a range of helpful templates to assist with corporate governance compliance.
